

2010 Washington State Board of Education Student Video Contest

Prizes! Fame! Immortality! (well, maybe not immortality)

Calling all Directors, Producers, Actors, Singers, Painters, and Artists Extraordinaire!

The 2010 Student Video Contest is Underway. . . You just need some friends and a camera and you're ready.

What we want: This year, we are celebrating the arts in school. We want videos that show the importance of the arts in education. The arts can be anything from ceramics to choir, from drama to dance, and band or basket weaving. If it's in your visual or performing arts classes, it counts.

The Challenge: Create a 5 minute video that is focused on this year's theme of "Why is arts education important?" How you present that theme is entirely and completely up to you.

Delivery: This is an online contest. Videos will be posted on Youtube and linked through the Washington State Board of Education website and our Youtube channel.
